Vera

Vera, Nov. 20.- We will celebrate the national Thanksgiving the 22nd. We, the people, of the United States should give thanks every day for the untold blessings we have every day and that we are a blessed people living in a land of peace and plenty.

The hunting season opened Monday. I hope it may be enjoyed by all and that they may get a lot of game, and no one shot.

We are glad that most of the farmers got their wheat sowed before the big rain Friday night.

Mrs. Lester B. Harvey visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Watson visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey on Saturday night.

The W. M. U., of New Hope held its meeting in the home of Mrs. Walker Covington on Thursday night.

We hope that Thanksgiving may be enjoyed by all. It's a real homecoming and we have so many things to be thankful for. Wishing all of our readers a happy Thanksgiving.

School News

The D. O. Club of Appomattox High School held its monthly meeting November 15, 1956, in our school classroom, at which time Jack Burkes was elected parliamentarian of the club. We discussed plans for making money for the club. It was decided that we would show a movie on Wednesday, Nov. 21, 1956, in the auditorium, and that candy would be sold at that time. The proceeds will go to the club treasury. A stunt show is planned for January.

Appomattox 4-H Club News

Mrs. Carson's 7th grade 4-H Club meeting was held on Nov. 14. It was led by the president. The 4-H pledge was repeated. The secretary called the roll and read the minutes of our last meeting. Nancy Sue Lewis was chosen vice-president. Free literature was given on our projects, Mr. Ayers gave the demonstration. There will be a 4-H Electric Congress this year. There will be three meetings, one each in January, February and March.

WHY RAISE BIGGER COWS?

Some dairymen say they don't like big cows because they eat so much. Others say they like big cows because they produce so much.

Which is the right way of thinking?

Dr. W. S. Griffith, associate dairy husandman at VPI, says the 1955 records for New York dairy herd improvement associations show some interesting results in favor of bigger cows. For Jersey cows, each 100 pound increase in weight resulted in 490 pounds more milk. In the Guernsey breed, each 100 pounds increase in body weight gave a 750 pound increase in milk production. And, in Holstein cows, each 100 pounds additional body weight accounted for 970 pounds in milk production per lactation.

The big cows eat more, but on the average they produced more milk and returned a higher income over feed cost than did smaller cows of the same breed, Dr. Griffith says.

LOCAL F. H. A. GIRLS PACK COOKIES FOR ORPHANAGE

Girls in the local F. H. A. are acting as "big sisters" to two children at the Methodist Orphanage in Richmond. Harry Ray is ten years old and Rita is five. Cards are sent to them and gifts on their birthdays and special occasions. The local girls are planning to play Santa Claus to these two children. There is a "money box" in the home economics cottage for this purpose.

NEW BOOK IN THE COUNTY LIBRARY

The Heart Has Its Reasons, the Memoirs of the Duchess of Windsor.

In this book one of the century's most famous yet least understood woman tells, as only she knows it, and could tell it, the great love story of our time. The world was rocked when King Edward VIII abdicated for the love of an American women whom the British Government forbade him to marry. From that day on, the world has wondered what manner of woman it was whose love meant more than kingship to the most glamorous figure who has sat on a throne in modern times. The world has wondered, too, how the marriage of this celebrated couple has fared. To these and many other questions this memorable book supplies the answers. Writing with candor and in fascinating detail, the Duchess of Windsor tells of her first meeting with the Prince of Wales and how, as their friendship grew, she sensed the loneliness beneath the gay and polished surface of the Prince. From this intuitive understanding grew love .. a love that was to exact a terrible toll.

A Christmas gift subscription to the home county newspaper will be enjoyed for 52 weeks. The cost is only $2.00.
